

Voices from an era of transition South Eastern Europe in the 18th Century

An online-edition

This online-edition of SOG18 consists of representative “voices” which reflect the various perspectives to the main events and processes in South Eastern Europe during the »long« 18th century (late 17th to early 19th century). These processes include the various phenomena of enlightenment, of several kinds of migrations, changes of the political systems etc.

The reason of this program is to give some publicity the male and female contemporaries. The collection of texts or (painted, printed) pictures will give the opportunity to all people who are interested to understand better this era of transition as the prelude of the great »change of the world«.

Subject fields:

- Confessional coexistence and conflicts (New forms of tolerance and intolerance, problems of secularization, change of confession)
- Enlightenment discourses (Westernization, education need, “new” media, empiric research, secular ideas)
- Economic expansion and local response (Commercial and technic phenomena, new markets, local industry)
- Migration phenomena (New Minorities, new kinds of settlement and ethnic coexistence, confessional autonomy)
- War and Society (Militarization, the Turkish wars, life along the front and border line),
- Geopolitics (International relations, Cartography, the Balkans and the Eastern Question)
- Every Day Life News (New buildings, new styles, new experiences, allaturca and allaeuropea)
